The accomplishments attained by Ms. Joanna Brick in the field of Legal Services warrants inclusion into the Top Attorneys of North America.

Joanna D. Brick is managing partner of her boutique law practice. She has devoted her legal career to representing clients in all aspects of family law. She is highly regarded for her tireless efforts and advocacy along with her sensitivity and compassion. Joanna is very hands on to meet each clients's very specific needs and develops a custom strategy, which effectively enables clients to reach their goals. Joanna often represents State employees, entrepreneurs, corporate business executives or their spouses. She prepares prenuptial agreements as well as performs as a qualified state mediator. Her representation for pre and post-judgment matters often includes alimony, custody, parenting time, child support, college contribution, emancipation, domestic violence, and equitable distribution of assets including family held businesses, real estate investments, professional practices and corporations, along with retirement assets, acquired stock options and inheritances.

Joanna is a member of the New Jersey Bar Association, Family Law Section as well as Bergen County Bar Association. She has provided pro bono service to Partners for Women and Justice and Morris County's Battered Women's Services along with ongoing lecturing for National Council for Jewish Women. Joanna received her J.D. from New York Law School and a B.S. from the University of Vermont. Following law school, Joanna was a law clerk to the Family Part of the Superior Court of New Jersey, Union County vicinage, and the Honorable David J. Issenman, ret. She has more recently been certified as a New Jersey Qualified Family Law Mediator. Prior to establishing her own firm, Joanna was a senior associate at Garrity Graham Murphy Garofalo & Flinn P.C.

The Top Attorneys of North America, a New York based publication, distinguishes and profiles leading attorneys who demonstrate recognizable success and leadership in their field. The directory is valued for promoting awareness of individual accomplishments and achievement within the North American legal community.
